Nihonmachi: The Place to Be

Nihonmachi: The Place to Be is a two-hour musical journey that will transport audiences back in time to Nihonmachi (Japantown). An uplifting and educational story of 100 years of a family's triumphs and trials, including incarceration during WWII and their deep roots in Nihonmachi. This wonderful musical is written by Soji Kashiwagi and being performed by members of the Grateful Crane Ensemble of Los Angeles.
