

The Portland government has announced that city of offices will temporarily close on the 14th due to inclement weather. As a result, the Consular Office of Japan will be temporarily closed all day on the 14th as well.